

NAVIGATING THE REGIONAL CENTER SYSTEM

By: CHLA Parent Navigators

We invite you to join our Navigating the Regional Center System workshop. Regional Centers are a network of non-profit organizations that provide services and support to individuals with developmental disabilities and their families. Regional Centers provide assessments, determine eligibility for services, and offer case management services. Learn about the referral and admission process for Early Start and Lanterman Act Services, including the services your child may be eligible for.
